Rutherford B. Hayes was born in Delaware, Ohio, October 4, 1822; graduated at Kenyon College, Ohio, and at the Law School of Cambridge; adopted the profession of law; was City Solicitor of Cincinnati from 1858 to 1861; Major and Lieutenant-Colonel of the Twenty-third Ohio Vol-unteers in 1861; Colonel of the same from 1862 to 1864, when he was appointed a Brigadier-General, and during the same year was elected a Representative, from Ohio, to the Thirty-ninth Congress, serving on the Com-mittee on Private Land Claims, and as Chairman of the Committee on the Library. He was also a Delegate to the Philadelphia "Loyalists' Convention" of 1866, and of the "Soldiers' Convention" held at Pittsburg; and was re-elected to the Fortieth Congress; resigned in the summer of 1867, and was soon afterwards elected Governor of Ohio. William A. Wheeler was born in Malone,

Franklin County, New York, in 1820; was a member of the class of 1842 of the University of Vermont, but did not graduate; adopted the profession of law; in 1850 and 1851 he was elected to the State Legislature; in 1857 and 1858 to the State Senate; and in 1860 he was elected a Representative, from New York, to the Thirty-seventh Congress. He was for many years engaged in the bank-ing business, and was President of the Ogdensburg and Rouse's Railroad Company. He was also a Delegate to the "State Constitutional Convention" of 1867, and was elected its President.

In the contested election case of Fenn vs Bennett for the delegateship of Idaho, the House committee on elections reported unanimously in favor of Fenn. Ex-Governor Bennett, has made a good delegate during the time he has represented the Territory. He is anthor of the proposition to allow the territories to elect their own Territorial officers and other needed reforms, and though he held the position wrongfully the people have lost nothing by it.
